

Field Study to OTOP Project Area by Lecturers and a group of students of Tourism

The representative of the lecturers and a group of students of Tourism Management Program, International College, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University will visit Tha Kha Community in Samut Songkhram Province on 2-3 February 2019. This trip is aimed to collect data and have a discussion session with local to figure out future tourist product development and attraction.

