

Tourism Management Students Celebrated Songkran Day in Guilin, China

It is not only here in Thailand we are celebrating Songkran Day. Our students in Guilin, China could not let this festival pass but made it happen through celebration activities on stage. The most important aspect of the festival is that respect is paid to seniors and elderly. Moreover, the students also prepared a Thai folk dance show for the Chinese and international audiences. Here are some photos they sent to us.

